WACO, TEX., DEC. 1, 1886.

This cotton comes in.

The bright sunshine again.

The sun was bright yesterday.

Waco is the "bright particular" of trade.

What is the hitch in the electric light business?

The margin on prohibition in Atlanta is not a broad one.

UNCLE DAN'S says the lease law is heterodox. That docks us.

The railroads have their carrying capacities taxed to the utmost.

It is now conceded that Waco is the cotton centre of central Texas.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND will not attend Mr. Hendricks' funeral to-day. He is a little afraid.

Some of the rum pulverizers show it in their faces. A real paid prohibitionist is hard to find.

SPEAKER FORTER is still arguing temperance. S. F. is determined to "puzzle" the rum power.

We agree with the Tyler Democrat and Reporter, that the legislature should meet now but once in ten years.

MR. SPEAKER FORTER'S paper tries to show that he is not opposed to Ross, but the explanation is a dismal failure.

THE Kereas Light says Ross will not only be a war-horse, but a wheel-horse in the gubernatorial race. The Light is right.

SAM JONES is pitching hot shot and shrapnel into the ranks of the sinners in St. Louis. Sam is reaching up for the tallest of them.

THE S. A. Express demands that Queen Victoria should "step down and out," and now the dear old lady do not know what to do about it.

SOME of the papers are trying to see which of them can get out the biggest Sunday supplement. These large supplements get away with a heap of money.

BARNEY has "done gone and done it" again. Sunday morning's News had another interview, just as large as life. These interviews are becoming too frequent and too dangerous to Gibb's political hopes. They ought to stop. Barney takes rank with the Sherman in his readiness to talk.

Sanitary Reflections.

It has been said that the test of our rank in the scale of civilization is the treatment of women. Doubtless this is a pretty good test, but there seems to be another which is not less significant. It is the sanitary conditions and regulations of our towns. If the sanitary conditions are not properly looked after, the people so offending—and such negligence is worse than an offense, it is a crime—cannot hope to escape the penalty. That it is so paid, and at a fearful rate, is attested by the death-rate. This death-rate, even in crowded and cemetery-contaminated London has of late been, by various improved conditions, reduced to about sixteen in every one thousand inhabitants. It is a shamefully large one in some of the Mexican and South American cities. The City of Mexico is built upon a table land nearly 7,500 miles above the level of the sea, is entirely without drainage, and the mortality is at the high rate of fifty to every one thousand of population, annually. In Guanajuato, a Mexican city of 58,000 inhabitants, the death-rate is seventy-four per thousand. In Bogota, the capital of the South American republic of New Grenada, a city of about 50,000 inhabitants, and built on a mountain plain more than eight thousand feet above sea level, there are no drains or sewers and the offensive condition of the streets and houses is noticed by every visitor. The death-rate there is not published, but it is unquestionably far greater than it should be. Undoubtedly the authorities designedly withhold the rate from the public, and for no other or better reason than they are averse to dealing their city such a blow as the publication of the facts would constitute. They are willing to see innocent victims thus added to pestilence simply to keep up the commercial reports of the place. It seems to us that it would cost far less in money and infinitely less in feeling to place the city in a fair sanitary condition and thus do away with this injurious condition and the objection to the place as a commercial center or trade point. Are we not, here in Waco, acting too much upon this theory? It is true we have commenced ditching. That is all good, as far as it goes, but the system of drainage ought to be more sweeping and thorough, sufficient, in fact, not only to carry away every drop of storm water as it falls, but to carry away and dispose of every drop and ounce of refuse matter long ere the period of decay and fermentation arrives.

We do not belong to the elite and played out Spanish blood. We are Anglo-Saxon, and full of energy, progress, intelligence and patriotism. Yet, we have done little more than the City of Mexico, and have commenced but little before Bogota, to teach the world that we are entitled to be considered as among the civilized cities of the world. Is it money we need? That cannot be, because one-fourth of one percent, upon our taxable values for one year, would create such a system of drainage as would forever place Waco as among the healthiest places on the globe. There is positively no other known or possible cause of sickness here other than that which comes from the foul air caused by the unremoved filth, which a thorough system of drainage would at once correct, and correct for all time, too. We are thoroughly alive to all other matters calculated to attract business are attended to. Why, then, that in this one single and pressing interest we are inert and listless? It strikes us that there is a species of selfishness in it which borders closely upon sinfulness. If we have not a city council which will attend to this matter, raise money and have the work done immediately and upon thoroughly scientific principles, why let us make an issue of it and elect a council which will do it. That is positively all there is in the matter, and it seems such a small thing to do, when you come to put the gravity of the situation and the pressing necessity against the insignificance of the cost.

John D. McCall.

The Sulphur Springs Gazette of the 26th, unintentionally, we are sure, does the above gentleman an injustice. In two separate articles it asserts that John D. McCall was chief clerk under two preceding administrations in the comptroller's department. We have not the slightest disposition to charge Colonel Swain with incompetency or dishonesty. We do not believe he is either dishonest or incompetent, but we respectfully call the Gazette's attention to the fact that Captain William A. Pitt was chief clerk under Colonel Darden, and Captain S. G. Sneed was chief clerk under Brown. McCall has only acted in that capacity under Colonel William J. Swain. Now will not the Gazette, with that fairness which has always distinguished it, make the above correction. It is devoted to Swain, as we are to Ross, but we do not believe it would do injustice even to insure his election, as we are very certain we would not to elect Ross a thousand times.

Bro. Russ of the McGregor Plaindealer says there are people who are dissatisfied with Mr. Bartow's management of the EXAMINER. Very possibly there are. It would not very greatly astonish us if there were those even who are displeased with Bro. Russ's conduct of the Plaindealer. People will be so unreasonable at times. Now, we are not particularly distressed on his account, not much more than upon our own. We recall the fact that the blessed Saviour found those who disliked him, and the great apostle found lots of folk in his day who thought Paul no better than he ought to be. After one has had a few decades of experience with frontier journalism, one picks up enough philosophy to enable him to get on, even if dishonest, narrow, mean and selfish people do not like him.

BON INSURELL says if there is no hell there ought to be for the man who robs the widow. On the same principal we say, that if there is no prohibitory law, there ought to be, for some fools who drink too much on Sunday, or any other day. A man who gets drunk only to license a bad tongue, or other vile act ought to be sent to the middle of Maine and kept there until he learns to so appreciate the good things of this life as to be able to take them in reason and enjoy them temperately. The world would suffer no very decided set-back if there was a law which would haul up every man who gets drunk, for a misdemeanor and place him in jail for thirty days, at least.

BARTOW never "hoofed" it into Fort Worth nor out of it. His business career will compare very favorably with Loving's, with this difference: If it has not been uniformly successful, it has only hurt himself, not others. When Loving fails, his friends catch it. We hope, for their sake, that the next time, he'll "hoof it" out of the Fort, but just where he'll go we have no idea, as we don't know a community elsewhere which would open its doors to him.

The fight on Sunday, or rather Monday morning newspapers in the east, is assuming proportions dangerous to the paper-every-day-in-the-year-system. They have brought the matter to the attention of the legislature in Massachusetts and several other New England states. There is to be a dead set made at New York.

WACO is a bright, sunny little city, just as busy as a bee, and as charming as a veritable rose garden, which she closely resembles at this season of the year. Great attention is paid here to flower culture.

THE Sabine Pass Times says that vessels at anchor or wharf can ride the fiercest gale in safety. Getting them to either anchor or wharf, seems the great over-topping and masterful difficulty.

THE Fort Worth Mail is mad at Sterrett, but it needn't jump on us for that. We are not viciously totting Bill's load these days. If it direct at our foes and let your friends alone.

THE Rockdale Messenger doesn't think any sort of a democrat, red-haired, blue-eyed or otherwise, can beat Roger C. Mills for congress in this district, and the Messenger is right.

THE Governor of New Mexico is after Governor Ross with a sharp stick. The taking of the oath on the top of the governor's palace, seems now to have been a ridiculous farce.

THE Tyler Democrat and Reporter is neither able, original or interesting. It is a dead-weight of idleness, and a mere parrot, which repeats its weekly lesson as others dictate.

OLD TOM Crooks don't seem to like the EXAMINER'S position as to Ross. Poor old fellow, he ought not to fall out with us for having nominated the next governor.

THE bishop of Texas will be in Waco on the 20th of December, when the holy rite of confirmation will be administered. Let all govern themselves accordingly.

ROSS' boom doesn't move about like a dead one. The fact is, it is too internally alive for those who announce its death.

THE Corsicana Democrat goes on from one excellence to another, until now, it is one of the best weeklies in the state.

ROSS has been demolished so often here of late, that he is becoming used to the operation. He seems to enjoy it, too.

Let us have electric light at once. More light! cry the belated citizens of Waco, of dark nights.

CONROE from thirteen counties yesterday, and it was only an ordinary day for cotton, too.

THE attempt to make an infidel of Coke was a most dismal failure.

THE last number of the Galveston Appeal was a superb paper.

LOVING is a pretty fellow to talk about other people failing.

WELL, yes! Waco is proud of the name of Cottonville.

THE Gazette still is the best north Texas newspaper.

THAT University location is still an open question.

MR. SPEAKER FORTER is beautifully side-tracked.

THE tongue patients are all convalescing now.

WHAT has soured Loving?

Go on with the ditching.

A CARD.
As every one knows we have so far had an unusually mild winter, and while our sales all along have been quite large, yet there is a certain line of our goods that have not moved as freely as we otherwise would like. We refer particularly to gents' youths and boys' overcoats, and we cannot blame intending buyers for not purchasing, for there has hardly been any necessity for an overcoat, but now that winter is with us to stay for some time we would respectfully call your attention to our varied stock of overcoats in all sizes and all prices. Look at our genuine raw edge heavier overcoats with quilted lining, former price $33 now $25. One of the best Melton overcoats ever shown at $30. Examine our $15 diagonal overcoats, and remember we are showing a good serviceable overcoat at $5. Come around and see us anyhow, and remember we are allowing all cash purchasers a special discount of $1 on all bills of $10 or over.

THE most pleasant and agreeable preparation of iron is Bicknell's Tonic. Free from that peculiar, lumpy taste so common with other preparations of iron now in use, combined with cod-liver oil, phosphorus and the aromatic, in a form acceptable to the most delicate stomach, especially to ladies and children. It is highly recommended by the medical profession in all cases requiring iron, purifying the blood, and giving color to pale and feeble persons. Call on or Peruvian bark is an anti-periodic and general tonic, prevents a return of chills and fever. It promotes the appetite, gives renewed strength to build up the nervous system, and has no equal as a tonic in debility with night sweats. Call and get a bottle at H. Behrens.

Try "cream of Patents" flour for light bread, at C. C. McCulloch's. Fresh ground, and cracked wheat always at C. C. McCulloch's. Fresh arrival of crackers every week at C. C. McCulloch's. Delicious blend of fresh roasted and ground Mocha Java and Rio coffee, at C. C. McCulloch's. The very best of hand-made candies at C. C. McCulloch's. Don't forget McCulloch's cream of patent flour at C. C. McCulloch's.
